

DATA NUTRITION LABEL

About

This dataset examines the percentage of people who need public assistance and the quality of education in NYC high schools.

421 Rows

11 Columns

Created by:

Suk Jin Chung,
Robin Sarah Chartrand

Content:

A csv file

Source:

NYC Department of Education,
NYC Department of Youth and Community Development

NYC Education Quality Data

TOPICS

Category:

Education

Tags:

High school, NYC, inequity,
School quality, district, SAT,
public assistance

COLUMN INFORMATION

- DBN: A code for each school composed of the district number, a letter code for the borough, and the school number
- Support_Env: Supportive Environment - Percent Positive
- Teach_Eff: Quality Review - How effective is the teaching and learning
- Teach_Eff_Num: Numerical representation of Teach_Eff according to the following scale
  - Developing = 1
  - Proficient = 2
  - Well Developed = 3
- Exp_Teach: Percent of teachers with 3 or more years of experience
- Coll_Rate: Metric Value - Postsecondary Enrollment Rate - 6 Months
- SAT_Math: Average score of students in the current cohort who took the SAT Math exam
- SAT_Read: Average score of students in the current cohort who took the SAT Reading and Writing exam
- SchoolDistrict: School district number
- PERCENT.RECEIVES.PUBLIC.ASSISTANCE: Percentage of people who received public assistance by school district

Alert Count.	4
Completeness	0
Provenance	1
Misrepresentation	1
Collection	1
Inaccurate Prediction	1
Description	0
Composition	2
Gender Bias	1
Racial Bias	1

*This alert indicates how many potential biases could be in the dataset.